HYPE'n up at Ruth's Roots

Local youth give back to community garden

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

Hancock Youth for Positive Efforts (HYPE) on Saturday helped spruce up and add its own colorful touch to Ruth's Roots Community Garden in Bay St. Louis.

HYPE is made possible though a substance prevention grant from the CDC, called the Drugfree Communities Grant, and helps get the youth group going, Hancock Resource Center outreach coordinator Colby DiMento said.

"Really, it's to prevent them from using any type of substance, drugs or alcohol, while in middle or high school, grades 6-12," DiMento said. "But it's also giving them a platform to give back and see the benefits of living a drug-and alcohol-free lifestyle and putting positive messages out in the community and letting them know that they can make a difference and have an impact on their home, even as kids. You're never too young to make a difference and to help out."

DiMento said the four pillars of HYPE are: Communication, commitment, passion, and WCA President A.J. Andres said that he hopes the group could host the parade.

"There's going to be a lot of preparation involved and I would just like to see everyone's approval on this," Andres said.

Smith said that the parade would also be "provided on nothing else happens and the situation doesn't get any worse and we have to backtrack."

Smith then solicited input from board members.

Bay Council eyes comprehensive non-discrimination policy

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The Hancock County NAACP last week asked the Bay St. Louis City Council to adopt a comprehensive resolution decrying discrimination of any kind.

Bryan Therolf, the political chair of the Hancock NAACP, read the resolution — drafted by Hancock NAACP President Gregory Barabino — to council members at their regularly scheduled meeting last Tuesday.

“I want to read the resolution in front of you (during the meeting) so it will be a part of the public record and, hopefully, you will adopt it,” Therolf said.

The resolution, in part, states that the city of Bay St. Louis and its leaders will “reject discrimination” in all its forms, including race, skin color, age, political or religious affiliation, gender, gender identity or sexual orientation.

Although the city has long had a blanket non-discrimination policy, “A different situation has arisen over a period of time,” Therolf said. “What I’m seeing is concerning. We have to act now as a society and as a Democratic republic. ... I would like to see more discussion and consideration about this at the local level, and work our way up to the state and national level.”

Therolf referenced a racially-charged incident that occurred in the city three years ago, when Ward 3 Councilman Jeffrey Reed — the only African-American representative on the council — received an anonymous letter with a racial slur. The letter concerned the removal of the only African-American on the Bay-Waveland School Board of Trustees.

Mayor Mike Favre said the city dealt with that matter and turned the letter over to the FBI for further review.

“I’m not making any accusations,” Therolf said. “I read a resolution

— we need to have a dialogue. We need to sit down and have some difficult discussions” about race and discrimination.

The council took the resolution under advisement.

In other action last week, the council:

- Proclaimed March 2, 2021 to be St. Stanislaus Soccer Team Day, honoring “the hard work, dedication, sportsmanship, talent and exceptional team chemistry of the 2020 and 2021 St. Stanislaus soccer team,” which recently won the MHSAA Boys Class 4A State Championship for the fourth consecutive year and eleventh time overall.
- Heard from Ron Thorpe, a member of the Hancock County Alliance for Good Government, who praised Favre, the council members and the city’s legal team for “four years of excellence.”

“At the end of the year 2020, with a pandemic and multiple storms, the mayor, council and legal managed to run this city and end the year with a budget surplus,” Thorpe said.

- Heard from architects Ed Wikoff and Michael Reeves on the progress at the historic Depot grounds, where Amtrak is scheduled to resume passenger rail service next January. Under Wikoff and Reeves’ supervision, the city is in the midst of a major renovation project at the Depot and surrounding area.
- Voted to approve several recommendations from the city’s Planning and Zoning Commission.
- Approved the purchase and delivery of 700 tons of limestone from Warren Paving for a total cost of $24,850 under state contract that will be taken out of the Federal Grant Fund.
- Approved the application for the Certified Local Government program for historic preservation and authorize the mayor or city clerk to execute any necessary documents to complete the application process.

Favre said the process would in no way affect the city’s current Historic Preservation Commission, but it would allow the city to apply for grants to help improve historic city properties.

The Bay St. Louis City Council meets in regular session on the first and third Tuesdays of each month. The meetings are open to the public.

USM Ocean Engineering Students Fare Well in National Competition

SEA COAST ECHO

Ocean engineering students Andrew “Drew” Smith and Joseph Bell teamed up to represent The University of Southern Mississippi (USM) recently in a national debate competition sponsored by Lockheed Martin.

Smith, a senior from Madison, Miss., and Bell, a junior from Waveland, Miss., participated in the fourth annual Ethics in Engineering Case Competition held last month in a virtual format due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

Twenty-six colleges and universities, each represented by a two-student undergraduate team and accompanying faculty, presented their solutions to a fictional case involving ethical, business and engineering dilemmas. The event also provided opportunities for students to learn about Lockheed Martin and its technologies, including a Q&A session that allows students to ask questions from a panel of Lockheed Martin employees and recruiters.

Dr. Mustafa Kemal Cambazoglu, assistant professor of ocean engineering at USM, served as the team’s faculty representative for the Lockheed Martin competition.

“So a lot of our projects involve some aspect of that,” she said. “Whether it’s showing it or talking about it and also it just helps them meet kids from different schools that they might not have met otherwise who have that same like-minded idea of making a positive contribution and also be healthy. There are safe alternatives and fun alternatives to hanging out on a weekend.”

The Ruth’s Roots project is the group’s third HYPE Hangout this year. The group also worked with the Creative Arts Center to paint trash cans for the schools and participated in the beautification of the walking track at Ochsner Medical Center — Hancock, DiMento said.

Service projects are completed every quarter, she added.

Students involved in HYPE also attend Hancock High School, Hancock Middle School, Bay High School, Bay Middle School, Our Lady Academy, St. Stanislaus, and Holy Trinity Catholic School.

The group also hosts monthly meetings.

Saturday’s projects at Ruth’s Roots included: Cleaning the grotto; repainting the hopscotch and the alligator; building and painting a garbage can; painting former newspaper boxes which will be used as libraries for seeds and books; repainted the flower beds; and cleaned out the chicken coop.

DiMento said that Steve Barney, executive director of The Arts Hancock County has been a “huge supporter of HYPE and partner.”

“So he brought us the paint and the stuff to use,” she said. “It’s also a combination of not only giving back through service projects, but also art and letting see them see their work in different places and get that feeling of ‘hey, I did that, I was part of that.’”

Barney said that Saturday’s event was a collaborative project between Ruth’s Roots, HYPE, and The Arts Hancock County.

“There’s a lot of collaboration between all these community groups,” he said. “We have a large collection of supplies that we use for public art projects. It’s part of what we’re doing with The Arts Hancock County. Local businesses donated the pallets. That’s another thing we’re doing. We’re teaching the kids about up-cycled materials. In this case, we’re using some old palettes to make a trash receptacle.”

Ruth’s Roots garden caretaker Elise Deano said that volunteer groups help the garden in many ways.

“It helps not only because we have people here helping, which is the obvious outcome,” she said. “But all these people are getting to see the garden and taking ownership. That’s my favorite thing about this garden is everyone has a little part. They can come back and say, ‘I planted that plant,’ ‘I painted that board,’ ‘I painted that library.’ So the kids get really excited about it as well. I want this to be a positive place for kids to come hang out. It’s outside, so it’s safe, as far as COVID and everything. They are helping us freshen up everything. We run off of all volunteers, we don’t have a budget. To have someone come in here and freshen up the paint and do the little libraries is incredible because it just makes it a more fun place for other people to come visit.”

Deanna said that people can watch the Ruth’s Roots Facebook page for volunteer updates. Right now, there are wooden boards available for people to take, paint, and bring back to the garden.

Deano said that community members can also donate to the garden’s blessing box. Items welcomed include: Tuna, canned chicken, SPAM, Vienna sausage, raviolis, beef stews, tuna kits with crackers, peanut butter, and powdered milk.

Deano said that pop tops are preferred because some that utilize the blessings box do not have a can opener.

The garden will soon have a seed library, so anyone who wishes to donate packets of seeds may do so, as well, Deano said.

Katie Koenenn, a 10th-grader, said she joined HYPE last year because she saw it as a good opportunity to meet new people and get involved in the community while “encouraging others to stay drug and alcohol free.”

HYPE participants painted a new trash receptacle as well as old newspaper boxes.

Koenenn said that community service has shown her that there’s “so much more we can do for others.”

“It’s humbled me and shown me how much this community needs the young people to step up and be a part of it,” she said. “It’s just really fun to hang out with your friends and do community service at the same time.”

Ava Ladner, also a 10th-grader, said she joined HYPE when she was in the 8th grade.

“I heard about it (HYPE) through school and I thought it sounded like something that I really needed to be a part of to help everyone and encourage other people to be a part of it,” she said.

Ladner said that community service is a “great way to show your love and support for your community.”

Ladner said that there are some high schoolers who see going to parties and drinking alcohol as “fun.”

“But really it’s not,” she said. “What are they getting out of it? Nothing. They think it’s fun in the moment, but nothing good comes from it. They can have so much more friends hanging out with their friends and doing things that don’t involve drinking or any kind of drugs.”

Good Ol’ Days

Whenever I think of the phrase “good old days,” the four-part harmony of my dad’s barbershop quartet plays in my head.
“Good ol’ days, good ol’ days. Bring them back once more.”

For my 55-year old self, the good ol’ days are represented by my childhood memories of an English muffin at the lunch counter at Zayer with my oldest sister, Cindy, or stopping at John’s Dairy Bar while my 2nd sister Diane was working and getting a soft-serve twist cone. The good ol’ days when a cheeseburger, small fry, and a small Coke only cost $1.10 at McDonalds. If I looked into my early adult life, the good ol’ days would be paying $100 for groceries at the Commissary every two weeks, or a carton of cigarettes for under $10.

This reminiscing was brought on today when a local woman and her granddaughter stopped by the Sea Coast Echo looking for an engagement announcement form. It has been a while since engagement, wedding, and birth announcements were commonplace in newspapers, but we managed to find a form that she could fill out and submit to our paper for publication.

What is more local than engagement, wedding, and birth announcements, and why have they seemed to drop out of newspapers? It could be that some newspapers started charging for that service, or perhaps the younger generation doesn’t think about the newspaper when “spreading the word.” I still have the newspaper clipping of my marriage to Paul— a local bank clipped it out and sent it to me in a card of congratulations. They did the same thing with my son’s 1st birthday ad that I placed in the (then) Clovis News Journal. These newspaper clippings will be there for my granddaughter to look at years in the future – she is only 23 months old now.

I see many postings on social media with pictures from weddings, anniversaries, and welcoming a new child – but how many of these precious memories are shared with the community in the local newspaper? Can you imagine, 30 years into the future, sitting with your child – or grandchild – scrolling through Facebook? “See how many ‘likes’ mommy and daddy got when we did a live video of your gender reveal?”

Newspapers across the globe are archived in bound books, on microfiche in libraries, and, by some newspapers, digitally. Clipping services continually scour newspapers for content that is archived and shared. At the Sea Coast Echo, we have bound copies of past issues dating back to 1932. The collection isn’t complete, unfortunately, due to flood damage during Katrina.

MS House Weekly Summary Week of March 1

This was the ninth week of the 2021 Legislative Session. The deadline for House committees to report general bills originating from the Senate occurred Tuesday at 8 p.m. Any Senate bills that did not make it out of committees died. The House began working on these Senate bills on the House floor, and the deadline for these bills to be passed is next Wednesday, March 10.

sified as “co-ed.” The language is similar to an amendment added to House Bill 1030 earlier in the session. After little debate, the bill passed the House by a vote of 81-28, and it has been returned to the Senate.

Several other Senate bills passed the House floor including a bill that would create the Mississippi Dementia Care Program to provide assistance to caregivers for those with Alzheimer’s Disease or another form of dementia (SB 2221); a bill that would establish the Mississippi Historic Site Preservation Fund Grant Program within the Department of Archives and History (SB 2834); and a bill that would extend the repealer on the State Board of Funeral Services (SB 2098).

The House will continue to work on bills originating from the Senate until the deadline on Wednesday. All Senate bills approved by the House will be sent back with changes to the Senate for concurrence or to invite conference.

Tax Incentives for Soil and Water Conservation

For many of Mississippi’s farmers, good stewardship of the land is especially important. By applying sound conservation practices, farmers help control and prevent erosion and increase soil fertility which corresponds to better wildlife habitat, cleaner rivers and streams, and more productive farmland. To assist with the cost of practices aimed at improving soil and water quality on agricultural lands, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) allows for the deduction of certain expenses for soil and water conservation or for the prevention of erosion on lands used for farming. However, the IRS does not allow for the deduction of ordinary and necessary expenses such as interest and taxes, cost of periodically clearing brush from productive land, annual removal of sediment from drainage ditches, and any other expenses paid or incurred to produce an agricultural crop.

According to the IRS, a person is considered a farmer if that person

Guest Column
By James Cummins

cultivates, operates, or manages a farm for profit, either as owner or tenant. A person is not considered to be farming if he or she farms for recreation or pleasure and not for profit. Also, forestry and/or the growing of trees are not considered farming by the IRS.

A farm is defined by the IRS as including stock, dairy, poultry, fish, fruit, and truck farms. Plantations, ranches, ranges, and orchards are also included. A plant nursery is a farm for the purposes of deducting soil and water conservation expenses.

The IRS allows for the deduction of soil and water conservation practices only if they are consistent with a plan approved by the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS). If the farmer does not have a plan from the NRCS, then a plan from a comparable state agency can be used. Individual site plans and county plans can be obtained by contacting your local NRCS office.

Expenses that are incurred by a farmer for soil and water conservation are deductible only for lands owned by the farmer or the tenant that is using the land for farming. The expenses that qualify for deduction include treatment or movement of earth (leveling, conditioning, grading, terracing, contour furrowing, and restoration of soil fertility) and construction, control, and protection of diversion channels, drainage ditches, irrigation ditches, earthen dams, and watercourses, outlets, and ponds.

A person cannot deduct expenses for soil and water conservation for draining or filling in a wetland or to prepare land for center pivot irrigation systems.

In some cases, landowners are levied an assessment for soil and water conservation practices conducted by the area soil and water or drainage district.

These expenses are also deductible as a conservation expense if they cover expenses you could deduct if you had paid them directly or covers expenses for depreciable property used in the district’s business. Types of depreciable property include pumps, locks, concrete structures (including dams and weir gates), draglines, and similar equipment.

For more detailed information go to the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

ground and interview process, the Commissioners voted unanimously for Cotter.

Derek Necaise, president of the Port and Harbor Commission, said there were 38 applicants for the CEO position. “After a grueling interview process, which consisted of numerous Zoom and in-person interviews, the commissioners voted and determined that Bill Cotter was best qualified to lead the Commission. We congratulate him on his appointment, and we look forward to working with him to bring new business and development to Hancock County.”

Scotty Adam, president of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, said the search process was rigorous and the Commission’s selection of Cotter was “a good decision” based on his extensive experience. Adam also noted the professionalism Cotter showed as interim CEO. “He handled himself very well throughout this process. We look forward to working with Mr. Cotter and helping him any way we can to continue to grow Hancock County.”

Before being named interim CEO, Cotter was the HCPHC Chief Operating Officer as well as the Airport Director at Stennis International where he managed more than $70 million in federal and state grants and implemented an additional $40 million in FEMA, bonds and internally funded projects at the airport.

Cotter is an American Association of Airport Executives Certified Manager and an active pilot who sits on the boards of the Mississippi Airport Association and the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce.

He earned degrees in both Airport Management and Business Administration. Last year he was named the Mississippi Airports Association Professional of the Year.

About HCPHC

enjoying a cup of coffee and the morning sunshine at Mockingbird Café (the fact that it is walking distance from the Echo is one reason Cassandra Favre and I smile at work) I started talking to a gentleman and his daughter. Over the course of the conversation I discovered he had been a football player for Bay High School back in the ‘80’s and had been mentioned in sports stories in the Echo. I asked for his number and promised to text him photos of the articles. It was fun for me to browse through the Saturday papers from the fall of 1982 and 1983 and read about the games and look at the photos.

I kept my word and sent several photos and stories that mentioned his name to his phone. I like to think that seeing those old clippings brought a smile to his face and memories of his “good ol’ days.”

I began my career in newspapers almost 27 years ago. I worked for a daily newspaper with a circulation of almost 11,000. The community had almost 33,000 residents, so that meant we had a saturation of 74%.

Today those numbers are much lower for print subscribers, but they make up for it with their online presence.

The drop in print and increase in online readers is common across the country. Small community papers have mostly cut back to one or two issues a week and focus on local content. Our newspaper here in Bay St. Louis is no different.

Even though we only publish a new edition once a week, we are still the source of local news and information. In 35 years, our local high school sports team can look through old papers from 2021 and read again about their great pass, the three-pointer basket that won the game, or the field goal that clinched the win. A couple getting ready to celebrate a 35th anniversary will be able to show their grandchildren the engagement announcement that was published in the local paper because the bride’s mother remembered having her own announcement appear in the newspaper and felt that sometimes, the way things were done in the “good ol’ days” should continue.

JASON BOND

Jason Preston Bond, 51, of Kiln, MS passed away on February 25, 2021 at Oschner Hospital in New Orleans, Louisiana surrounded by his family. He is preceded in death by his grandparents Manuel P. and Nell Bond, and William and Ruby Robinson.

He is survived by his loving wife Carla, children Kelly Weir (Dustin), Johnathan Bond, Brandon Bond (Tiffany), Amber Paine (Thomas), and Timmity Miller (Rebecca). His grandchildren Ethan, Cameron, Mackenzie, Tj, Raleigh, Eleanor, and Emmarie. His parents Rebecca Rhodes(Steve), and Charles Bond (Linda). His brothers James Bond (Sherry) and Jeffery Bond (Loretta), and his first wife Doreen Long.

Jason was born on May 26, 1969 in Kokomo, Indiana and graduated from Stone County High School in 1988. Jason was loved by all who met him. He enjoyed drawing, playing video games, and anything Star Wars related. He met the love of his life Carla in February of 2013. Anyone who saw the two together could tell that they were genuinely happy. Together, Jason and Carla enjoyed going on cruises and vacations with their friends. In his free time, he enjoyed spending time with his family. You would instantly know he walked into a room by the distinct arguments from his grandchildren about who was going to sit on Pa-J's lap first. He would try appease them all by holding as many of them as he could on his lap. Jason was known for his signature "dad jokes" that always had the kids laughing and the adults rolling their eyes.

Jason will be greatly missed by his family and friends. He will be cremated; the family will be holding a Celebration of Life in his honor at a later date. In Lieu of flowers, if you would like to make a donation to help with hospital expenses donations can be made at <https://gofund.me/50a3ea25>

As Jason always said "What better way to make your entrance on the streets of Agrabah than riding your very own, brand-new camel!" A Celebration of life will be held at a later date.

He praised the diligent efforts of Smith and Bell, who made it past the first round of the competition and narrowly missed reaching the final eight of the three-day event.

"I thought Drew and Joe had a great competition and a great experience by participating. I told them that I applaud both for accepting my invitation and devoting the time toward the competition during the preparations as well as during the competition itself," said Cambazoglu.

During the fall 2020 semester, Smith and Bell took Cambazoglu's course — "Engineering Ethics and Safety Culture," which led to their participation in the Lockheed competition.

"Both turned in excellent essays with in-depth ethical analysis of the engineering cases we studied as part of weekly written assignments, as well as their selected cases for a final term paper," said Cambazoglu. "As the best performing senior and junior in the class, they were invited to participate in the competition."

With its renowned

Gulf Coast Research Laboratory, Marine Education Center, and School of Ocean Science and Engineering, USM is a recognized leader in marine and ocean science. Cambazoglu notes that having students compete on a national debate stage further enhances the University's profile.

"I think it was very important to raise awareness of our ocean engineering program," he said. "This was our first participation in this competition and participation in future conferences will ensure that the students coming out of our program will uphold ethical values to their careers and always do the right thing."

To learn more about USM's School of Ocean Science and Engineering, call 228.214.9010 or visit: <https://www.usm.edu/ocean-science-engineering/index.php>

USM is also one of only 37 institutions in the nation accredited in theatre, art and design, dance and music. As an economic driver, USM generates an annual economic impact of more than $600 million across the state. USM welcomes a diverse student body of more than 14,000, representing 71 countries, all 50 states, and every county in Mississippi. What is the value of 30 pieces of silver to you?

BY GARY ANDREWS

Everyone has a value on what their actions are worth. Each one of us at some point in our lives will have an opportunity of accepting or rejecting eternal salvation through Jesus Christ or continue to look to the world for everlasting peace.

Even though we may have made the choice to follow Christ in our life it does not mean that the world is not going to offer temptations. Satan will always pull at you and offer you great gifts if you choose to turn away from Jesus or never accept Him as your Lord and Savior.

Look at the life of Judas. He was one of the original twelve disciples to follow Jesus, yet he took his eyes off the Lord and gave in to the temptation of the world. Judas acted as treasurer for the disciples even though he was known as a miser and a thief. He was at the Last Supper when Jesus predicted his betrayal. He betrayed Jesus with a kiss for the price of 30 pieces of silver which he returned to the Jewish leaders. Judas then went out and hung himself dying in sorrow and without repentance.

Jesus was later led away, tried by the people, and then crucified on the cross, the most painful and degrading form of capital punishment in the ancient world. Even though Jesus was betrayed by mankind, we are told in the Gospel of Luke 23:34 what Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do." We are also told in this Gospel that one of the thieves that was being crucified next to Jesus ask for forgiveness of his sins and asked Jesus to remember him and Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise."

After Jesus died on the cross he was buried and three days later arose from the grave. He arose from the grave with a newness of life and a glorified body, never to die again. His bodily resurrection is one that validates the claim that He is both Lord and Christ and that by His death we have forgiveness of sin.

Jesus died on our behalf so that we can have eternal life with Him. All He asks is that we believe in Him and accept Him by faith as our Lord and Savior.

The world tells us different stories about Jesus, and some tell us there is no Jesus. There are some, as Judas, who know Jesus, however, gets caught up in the activities and the pleasures of the world and push Him away. Even though this may happen Jesus tells us, as He did the thief on the cross, that if we will confess our sins and repent of them, He will forgive us.

We are living in New Testament times and all Christians are anxiously awaiting the return of our Lord and Savior. As we celebrate this Easter Sunday let us remember what Jesus did for us and what He is offering us. When we leave this old world behind, where do you want to live? Jesus has promised us eternal life with Him if we will confess our sins and repent from them, accept Him by faith and believe in Him.

Prayer: Thank you Lord Jesus for dying on the cross for my sins. Thank you for rising from the grave and defeating death so that I can live with you in eternity. Amen.

The Project for which such expenditures are made is the same as described hereinabove. The maximum principal amount of debt expected to be issued for the Project is the amount hereinabove set forth.

WHEREAS, the Governing Body is authorized and empowered by the Act to issue the Bonds and/or the County Bond and/or enter into the Loan for the purposes as hereinafter set forth and there are no other available funds on hand or available from regular sources of income for such purposes. NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE COUNTY, ACTING FOR AND ON BEHALF OF THE COUNTY, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. The Governing Body, acting for and on behalf of the County, hereby declares its intention to either (a) issue and sell the Bonds pursuant to the County Bond Act, (b) issue and sell the County Bond to the Bank pursuant to the Act, and/or (c) enter into the Loan with the Bank pursuant to the Act, in one or more series, all in a total aggregate principal amount not to exceed Nine Million Dollars ($9,000,000).

SECTION 2. The Bonds, the County Bond and/or the Loan will be issued, in one or more series, for the purpose of financing the Project, as authorized by the Act.

SECTION 3. The Bonds and/or the County Bond may be issued in one or more series and, if issued, will be general obligations of the County payable as to principal and interest out of and secured by an irrevocable pledge of the avails of a direct and continuing tax to be levied annually without limitation as to time, rate, or amount upon all the taxable property within the geographical limits of the County; provided, however, that such tax levy for any year shall be abated pro tanto to the extent the County on or prior to September 1 of that year has transferred money to the bond fund of the Bonds and/or the County Bond, as applicable, or has made other provisions for funds, to be applied toward the payment of the principal of and interest on the Bonds and/or the County Bond, as applicable, due during the ensuing fiscal year of the County, in accordance with the provisions of the bond resolution adopted by the Governing Body in connection with the issuance of the Bonds and/or the County Bond. The Loan will be payable from available revenues of the County and will not constitute an indebtedness of the County within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory restrictions, limitations, or provisions, and the taxing power of the County will not be pledged to the payment of the Loan.

SECTION 4. The Governing Body proposes to direct the issuance of all or any portion of the Bonds or the County Bond in the amount and for the purposes and secured as aforesaid at a meeting of the Governing Body to be held at its usual meeting place in the Board of Supervisors room in the Annex Building, located at 854 Highway 90, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, at the hour of 9:00 o'clock a.m. on April 5, 2021, or at some meeting or meetings subsequent thereto; provided, however, that if twenty percent (20%), or fifteen hundred (1500), whichever is less, of the qualified electors of the County shall file a written protest with the Chancery Clerk of the County (the "Clerk") against the issuance of the Bonds and/or the County Bond and/or the authorization of the Loan on or before the aforesaid date and hour, then the Bonds and/or the County Bond shall not be issued and/or the Loan shall not be entered into unless approved at an election on the question thereof called and held as is provided by law; provided, further that if no sufficient protest is filed, then the Bonds and/or the County Bond may be issued and sold in one or more series and/or the County may enter into the Loan without an election on the question of the issuance thereof at any time within a period of two (2) years after April 5, 2021.

SECTION 5. The Clerk is hereby directed to publish a copy of this resolution once a week for at least three (3) consecutive weeks in The Sea Coast Echo, a newspaper published in and having a general circulation in the County and qualified under the provisions of Section 13 3 31, Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended and supplemented from time to time, with the first publication being not less than twenty-one (21) days prior to the date set forth in Section 4 of this resolution, and the last publication being made not more than seven (7) days prior to such date.

SECTION 6. The Clerk is hereby directed to procure from the publisher of the aforesaid newspaper the customary proof of the publication of this resolution and have the same before the Governing Body on the date and hour specified in Section 4 hereof.

SECTION 7. The County reasonably expects that it will incur expenditures prior to the issuance of the Bonds and/or the County Bond and/or the authorization of the Loan, which it intends to reimburse with the proceeds of the Bonds and/or the County Bond and/or the Loan upon the issuance thereof. This declaration of official intent to reimburse expenditures made prior to the issuance of the Bonds and/or the County Bond and/or the Loan in anticipation of the issuance of the Bonds, the County Bond and/or the Loan is made pursuant to the Reimbursement Regulations. The Project for which such expenditures are made is the same as described hereinabove. The maximum principal amount of debt expected to be issued for the Project is the amount hereinabove set forth. The Bonds, the County Bond and/or the Loan, in one or more series, will not exceed the total aggregate principal amount of Nine Million Dollars ($9,000,000).

SECTION 8. If any one or more of the provisions of this resolution shall for any reason be held to be illegal or invalid, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect any of the other provisions of this resolution, but this resolution shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal or invalid provision or provisions had not been contained herein.

Rotary Diaper Drive happening now

SEA COAST ECHO

As any parent can tell you, babies go through a lot of diapers. Keeping a baby clean and dry can be a burden on low-income families, especially during these unsettled times. That's why the Rotary Satellite Club of Bay St Louis has kicked off its 4th Annual Diaper Drive early this year. From now through Father's Day (June 20, 2021), you can help families in this community by dropping off diapers of any size as well as diaper wipes at Bay Carpet and Flooring, Inc. in Bay St Louis and Keesler Federal Credit Union

Waveland Branch.

"The Diaper Drive is one of our favorite projects," said Satellite Club Chair Janine Cuevas. "This year, the need is greater than ever, and we know our community will come through."

Depending on age, a baby can need between six and twelve diaper changes a day. Before they are potty trained, the average child will go through approximately 7,000 diapers. Disposable diapers can cost a family between $50 to $80 a month. WIC and SNAP funds can't be used to purchase diapers. While cloth diapers can be an alternative for some families, most childcare centers require that parents provide a day's supply of disposable diapers.

"Not having enough diapers could actually keep someone from getting the childcare they need so they can go to work or school," Cuevas said.

The Rotary Satellite Club of Bay St Louis will take the diapers to local community partners to be distributed on a regular basis throughout the collection period. Money can also be donated for the Club to purchase diapers. For more information, please email rotarybclsatellite@gmail.com.

to tell anybody what they can and can't do, so parade on, guys, parade on."

Alderman Bobby Richardson said he would also like to proceed with the parade.

"But, you talk about the numbers, yeah they're kind of leveled out right now, hopefully they stay that way," he said. "But then A.J. would prepare everything and buy everything and what if we happened to have a big spike? Is that just a chance we take?"

Smith said that he fears that the more vaccines roll out, the more "comfortable people will feel not wearing a mask."

"I certainly encourage and recommend wearing a mask if you're in a crowd," he said. "Everyone in the club (WCA) should understand that if it does rise like it did, then we have to be prepared to shut it back down."

Andres said that he knows the parade will "generate a crowd."

"We can utilize the beach a lot more, better than what we have in the past," he said. "I just feel there are ways we can go about doing this."

tim," Waveland Police Chief Mike Prendergast said in a press release issued Wednesday.

"Upon arrival, officers began administering first aid to a 14-year-old male subject who had a gunshot wound to the torso area," Prendergast said. "During the investigation, it was learned that the juvenile was traveling with three other people in a 2014 Dodge Ram. The victim was a passenger in the vehicle. Another passenger in the vehicle removed a handgun from the holster located on his person in an attempt to secure the weapon when the firearm discharged."

He told police "that he was clearing the weapon and his hand slipped and the gun went off," Prendergast said. "The driver was not aware of the passengers handling the gun until he heard the shot."

Prendergast said the victim was transported to University Medical Center in New Orleans, "where he succumbed to his injuries."

The victim was later identified as Christian Sones, a resident of Poplarville, according to Hancock County Deputy Coroner Melissa Taillon.

No charges have yet been filed, but the case is still under investigation, Prendergast said.

Slipper Casino General Manager John Ferrucci spoke to the board about the road's condition.

During tropical weather events, Ferrucci said, the road floods, which impacts the casino's business.

"It's a hazard if the road floods, you can't get in or out," Ferrucci said in October. "We go ahead and tell our guests, if you want to leave, you have to leave now or you're going to stay in the hotel until the water recedes. We have a storm team now. When it looks like the water is coming up, they come in with their clothes and their personal effects and they're ready to stay for two or three days. We need to fix this road, we need to make this road passable even when the tide comes up."

Adam said there is no tax increase expected with the issuance of the bond, since the county has another debt that is rolling off.

Qumeka Robinson - 2nd place - 242 lb. weight class

Lizzie Weems - 3rd Place - 132 lb. weight class

McKenzie Favre - 3rd place - 148 lb. weight class

Clara Tew - 4th place - 181 lb. weight class

The Tigers are anchored in leadership by their seniors: Domonique Cole, Lizzie Weems, and Bianca Vellon. Domonique Cole set a new squat record in the 165 lb. weight class within Region 4 with a good lift at 330 pounds. Anlyssa Richardson also set a new squat record for the region in her respective 114 lb. weight class, with a good lift at 235 pounds.

Coach Garcia said, “The girls have worked so hard this year and every year leading up to this point. It was their night to shine, and they did just that. The victory is sweet, especially for the four-year seniors who have been here since year 1. I’m so proud of their achievements on the competition floor, but even prouder of the character and class these young ladies have.”

The nine Lady Tiger Powerlifters will move forward and compete at the Class II South State Powerlifting meet on March 27 at Moss Point High School Gymnasium.

Shore Thing: The Reel Deal Nobile

We have been trying to get the Nobile family out fishing for weeks. Between rough weather, freezing temperatures, and crazy schedules, I didn’t think it was ever gonna happen. Russ and I saw our weather window for his 3 daughters, and went for it. His daughters: Charlotte, Anna, and Mary have been fishing with me a few times over the years. They love to fish, and have all become quite good anglers. All three have been bitten by the fishing bug, but I think their Dad Russ should get a lot of the credit for this happening.

Being a fellow “girl dad” I can truly appreciate everything my buddy Russ puts into these trips. From the snacks, to the great stories, to getting the girls their “own spot” on the boat. He is like a symphony conductor. Yes these girls can catch fish, but Russ tries to help all three to have as much fun as possible. This may mean that Anna wants to net every fish caught. Often times it means letting young Mary scoop all the minnows in the live well. Sometimes, it is as simple as having Charlotte keeping score on who has the most or longest fish.

This is exactly how it went. Big sister Charlotte went on a run, with several small tag and released reds. She kept her luck going, and landed some keeper slot reds. Baby sister Mary took over and did the same on the big and little redfish. Anna, who was helping net everything, hadn’t landed a fish. Russ just kept everyone cool, and repositioned his crew around the boat. Anna was now in the “hot spot” and hooked up. She caught the biggest red of the day, a fat 25 incher. Since they already had plenty for dinner, she wanted to tag and release the big one of the day. Plenty of pictures were taken, and sent to mom Emily.

The only thing better than the weather and the fishing, was the company. No fussing, just fishing and fun. Till next time Nobile’s, it’s always a pleasure.

As always, have fun and be safe.

Second Saturday

SOUPer Mudfest is back for Second Saturday

BY CAITLIN BOURGEOIS

A few times a year, the iconic Second Saturday Art Walk event in Old Town Bay St. Louis adopts a theme. The “SOUPer Mudfest Second Saturday Art walk” - one of the most popular events of the year in Bay St. Louis - will take place March 13, rain or shine.

Over the past 28 years, the monthly Art Walk has become one of the most popular events in the region. Old Town stays lively all day, with many merchants and restaurants offering specials.

The pace picks up from 4 – 8 pm, when gallery openings and live music keep the streets humming with activity.

Bowls for March 13th’s SOUPer Mudfest Second Saturday Art Walk will be sold on the green space at Main and Second Street beginning at 3:30 pm. A wristband will be given to all who purchase the official bowls.

Bowls have been handcrafted by more than a dozen local potters and sell for $20 each. Bowl buyers are provided with a list of local merchants where they can sample gourmet soups throughout the evening - for free! Just show your wristband and hold out your bowl.

As usual, two Hot Spot businesses will be featured: Baytique, 125 Main Street, and Shannon Mullen Art /

Katie ‘s Jewelry & Gifts, 112 South Second Street.

125 Main Street, Bay St. Louis
(228) 344-3043

Slightly edgy, always fun - that’s the motto behind Baytique, a favored women’s boutique found at 125 Main Street.

There always seems to be something new and exciting happening in Baytique, from accessories to clothing. Jane Kulpeska, owner of Baytique and its sister store, Salty Soul (126 Main), opened the beloved clothing store after listening to customer comments for years at her bed and breakfast, The Carroll House.

Now Jane focuses her time and attention on finding unique and fun products at Baytique for locals and tourists alike. Once known as Bay-Tique, a place to find Bay Wares, the boutique is getting a fresh look heading into 2021.

Dropping the hyphen to fully embrace being a “Baytique,” you will see a new logo on those iconic green bags roaming around Old Town Bay Saint Louis.

Jane has some new

SHANNON MULLEN ART KATIE ‘S JEWELRY & GIFTS

112 S. Second Street, Bay St. Louis
(in The Shops at Century Hall)

If you want to shop with two lively, spirited women, then coming to Shannon & Katie puts you in the right space.

These two Metairie-based business owners met each other at the various craft shows throughout South Louisiana. Shannon Mullen, an artist, and Katie Gonzales, a jewelry designer, knew that they needed to look outside their current surroundings to stay busy once the pandemic hit.

Shannon took a drive to Mississippi one day to look for a spot to house her paintings.

She offers beautiful, weather-resistant outdoor paintings that are mounted in distressed wood frames crafted by her father. When she stumbled upon The Shops of Century Hall, she loved everything the building had to offer.

“I traveled with my artwork in the car to show potential businesses,” said Shannon. “I brought some in with me to Century Hall to show. I loved it, but I was a little worried about the security.”

Shannon laughed to herself and then recalled how, as she made her way to her vehicle with her paintings in tow, out came George Saucier right behind her. George, husband of property manager JoAnn Saucier, is often at the shop ringing up customers and assisting JoAnn.

“He thought I was stealing the paintings!” laughed Shannon. “So security is good. We call George ‘The Bulldog’ now.”

Shannon placed a call to Katie to see if she was interested in joining her in one of the gorgeous third floor booths, and Katie did not hesitate to say yes.

While you can find Shannon hosting paint parties, doing live paintings for events or chatting up her incredible outdoor artwork; Katie can be found not too far away making beautiful pieces of jewelry for you to wear.

Katie has a deep love for making people feel their prettiest.

From children’s jewelry to intricate adult pieces, she truly has something for everyone. “I want someone to always be able to purchase something out of my booth,” said Katie. “I make sure that my jewelry stays trendy, yet affordable.”

Katie offers custom orders for every occasion, size and age. Her work can be found in a variety of businesses which, to her, is like a dream come true.

Come and visit Shannon Mullen Art and Katie’s Jewelry & Gifts on the third floor of The Shops of Century Hall for Second Saturday on March 13 between 4 and 7. Jordan Kelley and Noah Vicknair will be playing live on the front porch from 4 to 7. These South Louisiana based musicians will be sure to please with their wide variety of instrumentals and vocals.

The first 50 people who visit and follow the duo on Facebook will receive a free pair of Katie’s beautiful, hypoallergenic earrings. Shannon will be hosting a paint party on the balcony and has eight available slots. Contact her at savthedayart@aol.com.

Meanwhile, elsewhere for Second Saturday:

Bearcats double-up Hawks 8-4, Rocks fall

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

The boys and girls of summer are in full gear on diamonds in the area with the sports of baseball and softball.

On Friday, Hancock (4-5) traveled to Long Beach and stumbled 8-4.

Hancock took a 1-0 lead in the top of the first inning only to see Long Beach come back and go up 2-1 in the bottom half of the frame.

The Hawks knotted the score at 2-2 as Blaine Knight hit a sacrifice fly and drove in Ryan Ladner who reached on a walk to start the inning.

In the top of the fourth inning, Peyton DeWitt hit a two-run double that scored Gannon Necaie and Tanner Lemon to make the score 4-2.

Long Beach ended up tying the score 4-4 in the bottom half of the frame.

Long Beach would add two runs in the fifth and sixth innings to make the final score.

Hancock head coach Anthony DeWitt stated, "We need to do a better job of just playing pitch and catch. We have the personnel to get it done both in the field and at the plate but we just need to settle down and get it done."

On Saturday, the Hawks beat Vancleave 5-4. Brenham DeWitt had two hits including a two-run homerun and a double while Lemon had two doubles. Gannon Necaie had two singles. Ryan Ladner got the win and Lemon had the save.

Over the weekend, Saint Stanislaus (7-2) swept a pair of games on Friday beating Petal 7-2 and Presbyterian Christian 13-11 in eight innings.

Against Petal, Brandon Rhodes got the win and Robert Alfonso got the save. Aaron Rush had two hits and two RBIs. Keaton Cunningham, Kaiden Rosetti, Connor Ladner and Ethan McNeill all had hits.

Against PCS, McNeill got the win while Cunningham had three hits and two RBIs. Cole Fletcher and Rhodes each had two hits. Fletcher also had three RBIs.

On Saturday, the Rocks fell 7-6 to perennial contender Sumrall. Kyle Stegall had two hits and two RBIs while Jackson Montjoy had a double and two RBIs.

On Monday evening, SSC was run-ruled 12-2 by Vandebilt Catholic. Rush had three hits and two RBIs.

In recent softball action, Hancock beat St. Patrick 7-2 on Friday evening as Makaya Necaie picked up the win and allowed just two hits. Lexi Walker was 4-for-4 at the plate with a solo homerun. Chassady Brown added three hits.

On Saturday, Hancock dropped a game with Mary Montgomery of Alabama 4-1. Lexi Spiers had two hits for Hancock.

Also on Saturday, Hancock beat East Central 4-3. Necaie was the winning pitcher throwing a one-hitter. Klair Cuevas had two hits and two RBIs including an inside-the-park homerun.

Bay High is 6-4 on the young season with wins over Picayune 8-6 and Long Beach 7-2 last week.

OLA dropped games with St. Patrick 18-0 and Gautier 13-1 last week.

The Lady Pirates dropped a game with Picayune 10-4 on Saturday.
